Welcome to Oshkosh -- Wisconsin's Event City!

This vibrant community offers more than music festivals and special events. Oshkosh boasts some of the most interesting museums in the state as well as plenty of opportunities to enjoy the great outdoors.

If you've made the trip to Oshkosh in the past, you understand how we provide a unique combination of big city entertainment with a small town atmosphere. We're home to more than 1,000 events each year ranging from monthly gallery walks and farmer's markets to major music festivals, and of course, the largest air show in the world. Situated on the western shores of Lake Winnebago with Lake Butte des Morts to the north and the Fox River running through the heart of the city, Oshkosh is an outstanding destination for outdoor recreation for everything from boating and fishing to hiking and snowmobiling.

Oshkosh is home to world class venues like the Paine Art Center & Gardens, the historic 1883 Grand Opera House, and the modern Leach Amphitheater.

If you're here for the softball tournament or just to check out the city, Oshkosh has something unique and affordable to offer. We pride ourselves on family-friendly entertainment, and exciting night life, and plenty of options to fit every budget.

Check out VisitOshkosh.com for everything you need to plan a great trip to Oshkosh. We hope your visit to Wisconsin's Event City is a memorable one!

MANAGER'S MEETING

is on the first morning of play (Thursday for 65/70/75, Saturday for 55/60) at 7:30 am at the Reetz Softball Complex.

NOTE: Managers who do NOT attend will be presumed to be fully informed on ALL matters (such as schedule changes, tourney formats and rules issues) discussed at the meeting.

Tournament rosters are "frozen" as of the Manager's Meeting. NO on-site player additions are allowed without Tournament Director(s) approval before team's first game.

Managers who don't attend the Manager's Meeting, and do not send a representative, will be prohibited from beginning tournament play before check-in with Field Director and are prohibited from roster additions.
